No, the investigation was initiated ex officio.

The Commission has gathered information on the evolution of Peruvian imports of clothing, as well as on the structure and economic performance of the domestic clothing industry. This information has been obtained from government entities such as the Ministry of Production (PRODUCE), the National Supervisory Authority for Customs and Tax Administration (SUNAT), the National Institute of Statistics and Informatics (INEI), the Ministry of Labour and Employment Promotion (MTPE) and the Central Reserve Bank of Peru (BCRP).
